Celebrating School Success!

NCEA recognizes Just for the Kids Higher Performing Schools in Arkansas

NCEA conducts the Just for the Kids Campaign to identify, celebrate and share insights from higher performing schools. As part of this campaign and as a public service to Arkansas educators, parents and other community members, NCEA has just released the following Just for the Kids resources for Arkansas:

- An interactive list of Arkansas' Just for the Kids Higher Performing Schools
- College and Career Readiness (CCR) Reports by grade and subject for all public schools in Arkansas
- Profile reports with details about how each Higher Performing School made the list
- Educator Self Reflections shared by Higher Performing Schools about practices that have contributed to their success

NCEA | ACT

The National Center for Educational Achievement (NCEA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization whose mission is to raise academic expectations and promote successful educator practices to help more K-12 students reach College and Career Readiness (CCR). NCEA is an established leader in the use of longitudinal data to raise student achievement and in identifying and promoting the educator practices that distinguish consistently higher performing schools.

NCEA is owned by ACT, Inc., an independent, not-for-profit organization that provides assessment, research, and program management services for education and workforce development.
